

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Yes.

SPEAKER NICHOL: All right. Any objection?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And I'm hoping that from what I'm saying it's clear what it is that I am aiming at. The penalty section that you will find connected with the amendment that Senator Johnson offered that deals with what we want to talk about, I want to change any penalty section that could subject a member of the Legislature to a criminal sanction for a vote on any measure before the Legislature. That's what my intent is, and, Mr. Clerk, will that be clear from what I said, what the amendment is aiming at doing, do you think?

CLERK: Yes, sir, I do want to visit with you, but I'll do that privately, just in terms of...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Right, because we'll have time while they are discussing it.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Mr. President, I do have a priority motion. Senator Carsten would move to bracket LB 548 for one week.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Cal Carsten.

SENATOR CARSTEN: Mr. President and members of the Legislature, we are here now on Final Reading doing some some General File debate, literally...(microphone cut out)...appear to me...(microphone cut out)...to a very substantial part of this legislative process that is going to be a benefit to us. I hate to see it disrupted and we spend a lot of time. I would just move to bracket this bill for one week. In the mean time I am sure Senator Chambers and Senator Johnson and others can work out an amendment that will be appropriate and acceptable. It is on that basis, so that we can move forward and get this done outside of the floor. Thank you, Mr. President.

SPEAKER NICHOL: I still have the lights on of those who wish to speak earlier. Do any of you wish to speak on this? Senator Chambers, Labeledz and Pappas? Senator Chambers, did you wish to speak about the bracketing? Senator Labeledz,
